Forewords from President of World Karate Federation

In 2018, we experienced one of the greatest moments in the history of our sport when Karate made its debut in the Youth Olympic Games. Now, as our beloved discipline gets closer and closer to the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020, we have another opportunity to follow the progress of our younger athletes at the 2019 AKF Cadet, Junior & U21 Championships.

The city of Kota Kinabalu in Malaysia hosts the 18th edition of an event which will gather future Karate stars from all over Asia to showcase the great level and the many skills of our promising competitors. It is a competition not to be missed since it will put the focus not only on those athletes who had the privilege to participate in Buenos Aires 2018 but also on those karatekas who are set to carry the flag of our sport in years to come.

It is always inspiring to see up-coming athletes in action as it reassures us that the future of Karate is in good hands. For this, I would like to congratulate all those who made possible that the 2019 AKF Cadet, Junior & U21 Championships will take place in Malaysia. I am sure that the tournament will be a huge success and that competitors will find the best conditions to show their abilities.

I hope that all the participants in this event will strive for the essence of Karate and I wish all of them the best of luck.

ANTONIO ESPINÓS ORTUETA
President of the World Karate Federation

Forewords from President of Asian Karate Federation

I am delighted to write the foreword of the 18th edition of the Asian Cadet, Junior and Under 21 Championship, 2019. This is the fourth time the Malaysia Karate Federation (MAKAF) is hosting for the Asian Cadet, Junior and Under 21 Karate Championship since the first edition in 1992.

MAKAF has been an important member of the Asian Karate Federation (AKF), It has been contributing tremendously in the development of Karate in Asia in many ways. On behalf of AKF, I took this opportunity to thank MAKAF for their valuable contribution.

The 18th AKF Cadet, Junior and Under 21 Championship will be hosted in a beautiful coastal city of Malaysia, Kota Kinabalu. With the experience that MAKAF has accumulated over the past many years for hosting successful international Championships, I believed the 18th edition of the Asian Cadet, Junior and Under 21 Championship will be a successful and memorable event for all participants.

Last but not least, I wish all participants a very successful 18th AKF Cadet, Junior and Under 21 Championship.

CHANG KUANG HUEI

GREETINGS.

It is an honour for Malaysia Karate Federation (MAKAF) to host the 18th AKF Cadet, Junior & U21 Karate Championship 2019. I would like to extend a very warm welcome to all participants and officials to the 18th AKF Cadet, Junior & U21 Karate Championship in Kota Kinabalu Sabah, Malaysia.

The past editions of AKF Cadet, Junior and U21 Karate Championship have been the major platform for all Asian karateka to interact and foster friendships with each other. In this 2019 edition I hope not only our friendship will be further strengthened, but perhaps, with the new rules and discipline, our knowledge and skills in sports karate will be further enhanced as well as to produce Asian champions for the Tokyo 2020.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank the Sabah State Government and especially the Chief Minister, YAB Datuk Seri Panglima Hj Mohd Shafie bin Haji Apdal, for their support and their audacity in the hosting of this event. After their successful hosting of the AKF Cadet, Junior and U21 Karate Championships in 2008, perhaps there would be more International Championships will consider Kota Kinabalu as a venue in the future.
